Sunday afternoon.

Gail & I come by earlier so I could meet Gracie & Moosie. They both went out and peed and pooped then. Then Lin back at about 3:00 and making dinner. Both ate well and cleaned dishes. Back out we went to the yard for a walk. 23 pees each this time. He played on the floor and I gave each a cookie and chew stick. All snug and warm here.

Tuesday

Took the kids out back and watched both pee & poop. Brought them in and made food. Both ate it all. Took them for a walk with my leash that I brought.

When I first came in I found a large pee spot between the coffee table & TV. I used paper towels to sop it up a bit but was unable to find any cleaner. I'll let Gail know so we can bring something.

Gave each a treat and cuddle and another quick backyard visit.

Friday 2^o

Took the kids out back right away. I thought the snow would slow them down but the run like rabbits. Moozie was clearing 3-4 ft. with each bound.

Grace not so much but she did run. Both peed & pooped. Made dinner and both cleaned their plates. Gave each a biscuit & a chew stick.

Sit and played in back room before heading out

Sat AM

Happy greetings this morning from Moosie + Grace. They played outback then we went for a walk. It is too cold for a long walk but we went out anyway. Both peed and pooped. Played in living room and had lots of cuddles + pets. Gail

PM

It has been snowing since this morning. I think we have about 4" at least and it is still coming down. You are going to want to get right back on the plane. The kids played outside while I shoveled some. They both peed several times and bark + chased the shovel (electric) HA HA they had some fun. Fed and petted. Gail

Bedtime

It is still cold + still snowing. Kids went out then we cuddled and had lots of pets. Try for a 2nd trip out before I left. Played fetch with Moosie and just cuddled with Grace.

Sunday

It look like we have another 1" of snow since last night.
The kids were ready to go out!! She did a quick pee then wanted right back in.
I found a wet spot on rug and dried it up. I think it must have been Gracie.
We took a short walk and they both pee'd again + pooped treats + chews + fresh water
Yay!

Super Bowl Sunday
afternoon.

I shoveled a little path
for the kids. Moosie didn't need it...
He thinks he's a rabbit.
Gracie liked it and followed me while I dug it. Both peed. We went inside and they got fed and ate it all. Leashed up and went down the street to Fitch. Both peed
once or twice!

These two are going to be sooo happy to have you home. Thanks for letting us care for them.

Please call and let us know you have arrived home safely. Jim & Gail
